NOGALES NOTES.

A Survey of the Happenings in the Line City and Vicinity During the Week.

This week Mr. Elgin Holt has been up from the Cerro de Plata camp.

The postage on the Christmas edition of THE OASIS is one cent for each copy.

Tuesday Doctor V. A. Smelker returned from a visit in the East, where he went several weeks ago.

Hon. A. S. Henderson, of Patagonia, was at Nogales Monday, on business before the Superior Court.

Frank Hobson and his brother are at home from the University of Arizona, to pass the holidays with their parents.

Monday Neill McDonald and R. R. Richardson from Patagonia, were at Nogales, having business in the Superior Court.

Tuesday Miss Maud McPherson, from the University of Arizona, arrived at home, to visit with her father through the holidays.

Tuesday Mr. B. M. Ashby returned from Naco, where he has been running between that place and Cananea. He is returning to the run between Nogales and Guaymas.

WANTED—Position by A. No. 1 accountant and bookkeeper. Long experience in mining camps in Mexico. References. Address G. P. care P. O. Box 335, Nogales, Ariz. [Adv.]

Thursday evening there were at Nogales, en route to Douglas for a short visit, Mrs. L. L. Temple, of Empalme, who was accompanied by her grand daughter, little Miss Evelyn Temple.

Copies of the Christmas edition of THE OASIS for gratuitous distribution may be had by applying at the First National Bank, or to the Town Water Office. Mayor L. W. Mix will give orders on the Water Office to all who wish copies to send abroad.

Monday there arrived from Los Angeles, to visit with his many friends in the line city, Mr. George McIntyre, formerly deputy recorder of Santa Cruz county. Mr. McIntyre holds now an important and responsible position with the Southern Pacific.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Glissan came over from Lochiel to pass Christmas with their daughters, Misses Gladys and Gertrude, who are here in school, at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Ignatius Burgoon, where Mr. and Mrs. Glissan remained during their stay. They returned home Thursday.

All trains on the Sonora railway stop at Carbo for dinner. The best table in the country at the depot hotel. Mrs. George Juarez proprietor. [Advertisement.]

Sunday there took effect on the Benson-Nogales branch of the Southern Pacific, a change in time card by which the passenger train running alternate days each way, has been changed to a mixed train, and runs on the same schedule as does the mixed train. Trains now leave Nogales at 7 o'clock in the morning daily except Sunday, and are all day going to Benson. Returning they are due to reach Nogales at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Monday Neill McDonald and R. R. Richardson made application to the Superior Court to prevent A. S. Henderson from interfering with assessment work they desire doing on the John Quincy Adams and Alexander Hamilton mining claims in the Santa Rita mountains. The case went over to January 3d, and it was ordered that M. M. Trickey be made a party defendant. M. Marsteller was counsel for the applicants, and S. F. Noon appeared on behalf of the defendant.
